A friend, family member or support person
can help you.

What are phone and door to door sales?

- A person calls or comes to you at
 - home
 - at work
 - in a public place. For example, a shopping centre.
- The person tries to sell you a
 - product
 - or
 - service.

The person is called a sales person.

A product is something you buy. For example,

- gas
- electricity
- a holiday
- or
- pay TV.

A service is something you pay someone to do for you. For example, paint your house.

When you buy a product over the phone or at your door

- you will get a contract
- or
- the business will post the contract to you.

What are the laws?

There are special laws when you buy a product or service that costs $100 or more. These laws protect you when someone sells you a product or service

- over the phone
- at your house or work
- in a public place. For example, shopping centre.

The sales person must tell you all the information before you buy

The sales person must tell you

- their name and the business name.
- the price and any discounts.
For example, you can use a pension card to get a cheaper phone bill.
- any extra money you might have to pay.
Extra money is called a fee or a charge.

The sales person must also tell you

- how long you have to pay.
For example, 6 months or one year.
- information about changing your mind after you buy the product.

The sales person must tell you the truth.

Can you change your mind?

If you buy a product that costs $100 or more, you have 10 days to change your mind.

This is called a cooling off period.

You do not have to pay any money until the cooling off period is finished.

What can you do in a cooling off period?

- You can stop the contract.
- You have to return the product.
- If you have paid any money, you can get a refund.

How do you stop a contract you have signed?

- Phone the business and tell them you want to stop a contract

or

- fill in a form and post it to the business.

The sales person must tell you how to stop a contract.
You may have to pay a fee.

When can a sales person visit you?

- Monday to Friday, 9 am to 6 pm
- Saturday, 9 am to 5 pm.

A sales person can not visit you on a Sunday or public holiday. For example, Christmas Day or Good Friday.

How do you buy a product?

You agree to buy a product when you say

Yes, I will buy that.

You must

- understand what you are doing
- be able to tell the sales person

Yes, I will buy that.

You agree to buy a product

- in writing
- or
- on the phone
- or
- on a voice recorder.

The sales person must ask for your permission before they can record your voice.

On the phone you can

- say No, goodbye
- and
- hang up the phone.

At your house you can

- say No thank you
- and
- close the door.

Remember

- You do not have talk to a sales person.
- You do not have to buy anything unless you want to.
- A sales person can not ring or visit you again for 30 days about the same product.
- A sales person can ring or visit you again about a different product.
- If you say I am too busy to talk, the sales person can ask you Can I ring you later? You can say no.

What happens after you stop a contract?

The business will give you your money back.
If the product is broken, you might only get some of your money back.
