

Refunds, replacements and repairs

Easy English fact sheet

2025

You might need help to read this fact sheet.

A friend, family member or support person can help you.

Sometimes there is something wrong with a product you bought. You can take the product back to the shop.

The shop can

- give you a refund
- or
- give you a replacement
- or
- repair it for you.

What is a refund?

The shop gives you your money back.
An exchange or credit is not a refund.

An exchange means you swap the product for another product. It could be the same product or a different one.

Credit is like a voucher for the shop. You can buy something later.

What is a replacement?

The shop gives you a new one.

What is a repair?

The shop can fix it for you.

When can you get a refund, replacement or repair?

The product

- is broken and it is not your fault.
- does not do what you want.
- the product does not do what it should do.
- is different to the product you saw in the shop. For example, it is a different size or colour.
- is not safe.

A product is not safe if you use it properly and

- it can hurt you
- it can cause a fire
- it breaks easily.

How can you get a refund, a replacement or a repair?

Take the product back to the shop you bought it from.

Show your

- receipt
 - credit or debit card slip
- or
- bank statement.

Explain what went wrong.

You may not get a refund or replacement if

- there is nothing wrong with the product and you just changed your mind. You might get an exchange or a credit instead.
- they can fix it for you.
- you bought the product for someone else and they do not want it.
- you knew the product was broken when you bought it. For example, you paid less for the product because it was already broken.
- you broke the product and it was your fault.

Remember

- When you buy a product always ask for
 - a receipt
 - or
 - a credit or debit card slip.
- Keep your receipt in a safe place.
