SERVICE INFORMATION FOR THE LESSOR (LANDLORD)

If the matter goes to Court you will have to produce evidence of service. Service may be effected by various means, for example:

- by personal delivery (you may seek the assistance of a bailiff or other process server); or
- by post (normal post not registered post).

You can deliver the notice to the tenant, a resident of the rented premises who is apparently over 16 years, or to a person who ordinarily pays the rent. Service may be on any one tenant if there are more than one.

For full details about the service of notices and documents see Section 85 of the Residential Tenancies Act 1987.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR TENANTS

- By providing this notice, the lessor (the landlord) is advising you that your rent will be increased by the amount stated on this form.
- For a fixed-term tenancy agreement, the rent cannot be increased during the fixed term unless the rent increase, or the method of calculating the rent increase, is set out in the tenancy agreement.
- Except for fixed-term tenancy agreements entered into before 29 July 2024 the rent cannot be increased more than once every 12 months and the lessor (the landlord) must give at least 60 days' notice.

- For fixed-term agreements entered into before 29 July 2024 the rent may be increased at six monthly intervals if the agreement allows for that increase. The lessor (landlord) must give at least 60 days' notice. After the current term ends, the rent cannot be increased more than once every 12 months.
- A fixed-term tenancy is a tenancy with an end date.
- You should seek advice immediately if you do not understand this notice or if you require further information.
