

Scams

Easy English fact sheet

2025

You might need help to read this fact sheet.

A friend, family member or support person can help you.

What is a scam?

A scam is a trick to get money from you.

Scams can look like they are from a real company.

When an offer seems too good to be true, then it could be a scam.

This book talks about people who try to scam you.

It might be

- one person
- a group of people.

Be careful when the offer says

- you will get lots of money if you do what they ask
- you will get a free present or prize from a competition that you did not enter.

What can you do?

- Do not say yes or pay money to people you do not know. Do not let people rush you.
- Stop and think.
- Take your time.
- Make sure information or bills are real.

How to find out more information

- Talk to your friends and family.
- Look at the company's website.
- Look at these websites and phone numbers

6. Rebate scam page 8

1. You are a winner!

You get a letter or email or text message.

It says You are a winner!

- The message asks you to pay money to get a prize.
- The message asks you to ring an expensive phone number to get a prize. For example, 1900 phone numbers.

There is probably no prize.

Stop and think.

Did I enter this competition?

No I did not. It is a scam.

2. Buy shares or property

The people

- say they are financial or investment advisers
- promise you will get lots of money back.

The people will charge you a very high price.

You will pay a lot more money than you should for the property or shares.

It is a scam.

3. Send your bank numbers in an email

You get an email asking for your bank numbers.
The email says it is from a bank.

- No bank sends emails to ask for your bank details.
- The scam email might tell you to click on a link.
The link will take you to a fake website.
- The people will use your bank numbers to steal money from you.

It is a scam.

Warning

Never send your bank details to anyone
you do not know.

Never send your bank details in an email.

4. Pay for fake advertising

- You get a fake bill.
- You get lots of phone calls asking you to pay for something.

Stop and think

- Did I order this?
- Did I sign anything?
- Did someone sign something for me?

This is a scam.

5 Romance scam

- You meet a person online.
- The person sends you emails or calls you. The person asks you to give them money for something.

Warning

Do not

- give your bank details
- send money to a person you have not met face to face.

This is a scam.

Listen to warnings from friends and family.

6. Rebate scam

- A person emails or phones you.
- The person says they are from a bank or the government.
- The person says they owe you money and want you to pay a fee so you can get the money.

Warning

- Check where the person is from.
- Call the bank or government.
- Do not
 - give your bank details
 - pay money to get money back.

This is a scam.
